

What do the kids do at this Program?

All students will have large group, small group, orchestra, fiddle and drumming classes. There will also be a lunch period and recreational breaks spaced throughout the day. All students will have the opportunity to play a pre-prepared solo on a recital during the week. If a student chooses to do so, they must have a signed permission slip from their private/school teacher stating that they are prepared to perform on this recital with a specific song listed.

When Does this Program Start and End?

This week-long program will begin at 9am each day and will end at 3:30pm. Morning care beginning at 8AM and/or afternoon care until 6PM are available for additional fees. There will be a culminating concert at the end of the week, Friday at 2:30pm, which all parents and friends are invited and encouraged to attend!

What options are there for Lunch?

Students need to bring their own lunches, snacks and drinks. The following food choices are available for purchase. After-lunch smoothies on Wednesday, Chick-Fil-A on Thursday, & Pizza on Friday. Forms for those choices are available Monday morning, the first day of the program, and need to be paid for at that time.

FACULTY

Jeannie Sykes – Program director and Violin

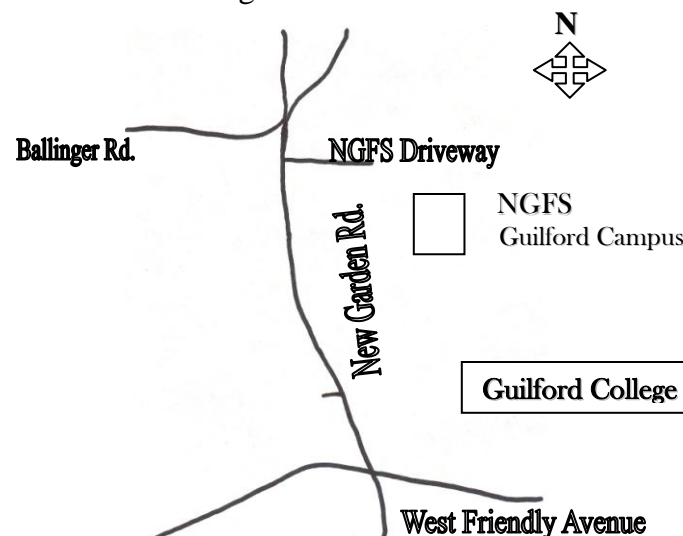

Eve Hubbard – Violin and orchestra

Wiley Sykes – African drumming, rhythmic training

Jenny Walker-Brunner - Fiddle

Where Will this program be held?

The program will be held at New Garden Friends School located behind Guilford College at 1128 New Garden Road. The campus has spacious rooms, music stands, two playgrounds and open space for playing outside games during recreation time. It is a safe and friendly environment with good facilities.

More questions?

If you have any questions, please feel free to call NGFS for more information at 299-0964, ask for Jeannie Sykes or email jeannies@ngfs.org.

Introducing: New Garden Friends School

Friendly Violins

July 19-23

To enhance the skills of Suzuki violinists

What is Friendly Violins??

Friendly Violins is a program designed to provide a week of concentrated music study and musical enjoyment for students already involved in Suzuki violin lessons. The program will run for 1 week Monday-Friday, July 19-23 from 9am-3:30pm.

Who can participate in Friendly Violins???

Friendly Violins is designed for rising 4th through 8th grade students who are already involved in Suzuki violin lessons. This program will run concurrently with the New Garden Friends School Summer Program.

Are there fieldtrips??

We will visit the Guilford College campus to see a performance at the Eastern Music Festival (EMF). Luckily, we are located on the edge of the Guilford College Campus. We will walk the short distance to Dana Auditorium.

FEEES

The Course fee is $225. This covers the camp hours from 9am-3:30pm, Monday-Friday. A $50 deposit (which will apply to your Course fee) must be mailed in with the registration form by June 1 to save a spot for your child.

Extended Care is available from 8am-8:45am in the morning, and from 3:45pm-6pm in the afternoon.

$40 per week for afternoon care only

$20 per week for morning care only; $4 per day

Part time extended care in the afternoon is $2.00 for each ½ hour.

This program can be used informally on a drop in basis, but please try to prearrange all extended care hours when possible.

Is scholarship $ available?

Financial aid is very limited and only available to students who have a true financial need. Please contact Jeff Bills for more information jeffb@ngfs.org .

Who are the Faculty?

sharing the gift of making music with others and can be found performing her own style of music with the Walker Family Band.

Jeannie Sykes, violin

Northern Illinois University, BM; Texas Christian University, MM-Suzuki Pedagogy

Jeannie has taught Suzuki violin for over 30 years across the country in various programs, at institutes and as a workshop clinician. For the last 12 of those years she has been a teacher at NGFS where she has developed a large and active string program. She is also a member of the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra and teaches violin at Guilford College.

Wiley Sykes, percussion

UNC-G, BM; Northern Illinois Univ., MM, UNC-G, BA

Wiley is a member of the Greensboro and Winston-Salem symphonies, the Grand Teton Music Festival and teaches at Guilford College. He enjoys playing a variety of different percussion instruments and is an active performer on North Indian tabla, drum-set and West African jembe with his own Philidor Percussion Group and a host of other groups.

Eve Hubbard, violin

UNC-G, BM; Northwestern Univ., MM; UNC-CH, MM

Eve is a long-time dedicated Suzuki violin teacher, now maintaining a large studio at The Music Center in downtown Greensboro. Among her accomplishments: 19 yr. as Director of Greensboro College Strings, a multi-studio Suzuki program, and hosting regional workshops. The goal of her teaching and performance is to contribute to building a vibrant musical community.

Jennie Walker Brunner, fiddle

The daughter of two Suzuki teachers, Jennie has been playing violin since the age of three. When she began college, her Dad introduced her to Irish fiddling as she continued her classical music studies. After a wide range of musical and life experiences, Jennie graduated from Texas State University with a BA in music education. She enjoys